wutzko/photo/Shutterstock Medical assistants are a vital part of the healthcare sector. Furthermore, customers can cancel any time they like with no extra fees. Caliber specializes in transporting patients in wheelchairs, but they also offer a non-emergency ambulatory service for other patients, as well as stretcher transportation. Medical assistants work in both administrative and practical capacities. There are two education routes to choose from: a certificate or associate's degree. They provide an invaluable service and assist in the daily running of any medical facility. Becoming a medical assistant opens up a world of opportunities, but before you begin working, you need to get your medical assistant certification. You'll need to take classes at a school that trains medical assistants. They may transport patients to a health care facility from their homes or between health care facilities in situations that do not call for an ambulance. You can choose which area of medicine you like working in, such as Ophthalmology. As you progress in your career and gain more experience, you'll move onto more complex tasks. You could be in charge of finances, data protection or insurance. They pride themselves on their bedside-to-doctorside service at a reasonable price with minimal fuss. Caring Senior Service-Caring Senior Service was set up in 1991 to cater specifically to patients in and around Odessa, Texas. Externships are ideal because they enable you to practice your skills and find out if the job is right for you. You'll take an exam about the medical assistant role and if you pass, you'll be awarded your certificate. Some offer international transportation services. You'll need to go onto further study, but the process will be a lot quicker with a degree. Get Practical Experience Part of your course will involve gaining some hands-on experience. They liaise with doctors and nurses to ensure the patient gets the best treatment. Here are five of the best companies. Medex Patient Transport Medex Patient Transport provides fast and reliable service for a wide variety of patients, including the elderly. If you want to start work quickly, then you should choose the certificate. They're known to be safe and reliable, so they're ideal for patients with special needs and limited mobility. The best thing about being a medical assistant is how varied the job is. In fact, this company is known for its can-do approach, placing minimal restrictions on the services they offer. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET And these include far more than just non-emergency medical transportation. You'll work with medical assistants and aide them in their daily duties. For example, Caring Senior Service also provides in-home care, including companionship, personal care, meal preparation, running errands and housekeeping. Medjet Assist Medjet Assist has excellent coverage at reasonable rates. If you have an interest in sports medicine, then Podiatry can be an excellent starting point or train in Chiropractics. Some higher up roles require more training, but there are loads of prospects in administrative roles. MORE FROM BLOG LINES Non-emergency medical transportation companies offer solutions for patients who lack their own transport to and from hospitals. Your practical experience gives you the opportunity to ask qualified medical assistants questions, evaluate which skills you need to improve on and make connections. They all count as the same qualification to employers and are multiple choice. However, if further education interests you, then an associate's degree will give you a foundation to progress into higher ranking job roles. The introduction of Electronic Health Records means you'll be required to understand data laws and take responsibility for ensuring patients' personal information is protected. Changes in technology mean medical assistant roles are much more varied today. Medex also has a reputation for having a friendly staff. However, make sure your course is accredited by the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES) or Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP). They also have access to 250 air ambulances in 50 locations. Global Rescue Global Rescue provides medical transportation in 195 countries, maintaining its own security, intelligence and communication systems to do so. Both are great courses, which will prepare you for the workplace. Since then, it has expanded beyond Odessa and even Texas to offer services nationwide. Administrative focuses are perfect if you prefer organizational roles. If you're looking for a rewarding career and enjoy helping people, then a medical assistant role might be ideal for you. An example of their services is the provision of a medical escort on a commercial flight to the United States from overseas. There are many areas qualified medical assistants can explore including focusing on administrative or clinic prospects. Your Prospects A clinical focus includes working more directly with patients and assisting with their care. The job requires multiple skills, including customer service, administration and some clinical abilities. Patients can demand to be taken to the hospital of their choice, regardless of whether a closer hospital has adequate facilities to care for them. There are also medical assistants within the OB-GYN area, which is ideal for people with an interest in women's health. It's perfect for people that enjoy a challenge and want to learn a multitude of skills. What Do Medical Assistants Do? Some tasks you'll do as a medical assistant include: scheduling appointments, managing medical records, preparing examination rooms and patients, sterilizing equipment, perform basic medical tasks and drawing blood. These include administering medication, starting an IV, health and safety coordination, lab testing and even assisting with clinical trials. Once you've received your certificate, you can start searching for work and begin your career. Although it operates in partnership with Johns Hopkins, patients are free to specify the hospital of their choice. This is called an externship, and your college will arrange a placement for you. There are five different exams, but it doesn't matter which one you take. Patient care is the most important part of medical treatment, and a classroom teaching can't compare to real life experience. Getting Your Certification Some medical assistant roles don't require certification, but it's advisable for career opportunities.
